

EXT. - DECOY SITE

POW runs desperately from the drone as the site beams target him.

POW
It's still on me man - I got no cover!

He dives into the sand, rolls and fires his M16 toward the sky.

The DRONE recalculate and locks target to his chest.

POW
Nooooo!

POW'S world explodes. The drone shifts and zooms away.

INT. - DEFENSE HEADQUARTERS

LOCKE suddenly twists grabbing the gun from the man behind him. Military personnel engage the BLACK-SHIRT private security team in hand-to-hand combat. LOCKE engages with AGENT PALMER.

INT. - DESERT AIRMEN TENT

Both TRUE and NIGHT are frantically tapping into the keyboards of each computer. TRUE regains visual of their HEADQUARTERS.

The fighting at Defense Headquarters is revealed on screen.

TRUE
Holy Shit! We're on our own!

LOCKE appears on the screen, pausing intermittently to duck and punch. He yells into the camera.

LOCKE
OVER-RIDE! We were set-up! Re-route weapons to Headquarters!

TRUE

Sir – weapons will obliterate site!

LOCKE is suddenly grabbed in a choke-hold from behind.

LOCKE

That's an order!

NIGHT

I'm on it, Sarge!

TRUE looks up to see a DRONE re-routing towards them, their weapons lowered.

TRUE

We're outta time – we're outta time!

NIGHT grabs the laptop, they both scramble from the tent and dive clear of it, just as the drone's weapon destroys it. Laying prone and sand-covered, NIGHT opens the laptop and desperately continues to work to override the drone's automated commands.

TRUE

I'll cover, you got this?!

NIGHT nods. TRUE scrambles from the ground. She lifts a Beowulf weapon from beneath the rubble, runs away from NIGHT, turns, lifts the weapon to the sky, and fires.

A large explosion hits the side of the drone, to no affect but to get its attention.

The DRONE swings back toward TRUE.

She quickly tosses the weapon and dives for cover, as the ground explodes behind her.

Nearby, NIGHT continues tapping and muttering.

NIGHT

I got you, you mothers, I got you.

Suddenly, the DRONE swings in the direction of the Desert Defense Headquarters.
